

Teaching Opportunities for Newly Qualified Teachers

in Church of England schools in London

Applications are invited from NQTs graduating in 2017 who are trained to teach at primary and secondary level.

The Diocese of London has 156 primary and secondary schools in Inner and Greater London across 18 LAs – city, suburban and rural settings.

We are looking for enthusiastic and talented teachers who would enjoy working within the ethos of church schools. Applicants will be offered a professional development interview before a panel of experienced headteachers, which will be an excellent preparation for the real thing.

Make a difference!

Application forms are available from:

Patrick Regan - Tel: 020 7932 1162

Email: pat.regan@london.anglican.org

Website: www.london.anglican.org/schools

Our schools are strongly committed to the principle of equality of opportunity and the safeguarding of all children. All appointments are subject to a satisfactory enhanced DBS check.